AWARDS DAY!!

In religion, we continue to do Lenten Activities. Confessions will be moved back to next week because of the snow day

In reading, they are working on a non fiction story “ Stretching Ourselves” a story about children with cerebral palsy.

In math, we tested on fractions.

In Minnesota History, they began unit # 2 with the Building of Fort Snelling. They tested on it today.

In English, they are finished with pronouns and beginning adjectives. They also wrote letters to their pen pals.

Remember that if you are going along as a chaperone to the Audubon, to complete your background check.

Triple A forms are due back as soon as possible.
