GRADE 5 NEWS

Spelling Words

April 28, 2017

No Spelling Test

The end of the year is rapidly approaching.

5th grade graduation will be on May 18, 2017. We will begin with Mass at church. We will come back to the school gym for a light breakfast and a program. Invitations will be coming out next week.

We are back in our reading textbook. Our story is called, " The Unsinkable Wreck of the R.M.S. Titanic". It is an example of narrative non Fiction.

In math, we worked on order of operations and solving basic equations with algebra.

In English, we finished our chapter on adjectives and took the test.

In social, we found out that we became a state in 1858. They also found out that we had volcanoes in Minnesota! Minnesota has many beautiful stones used for building and decorating.

In religion, we are learning the prayer, Hail Holy Queen. We worked on activities based on the Octave of Easter. We took a test about Holy Week.

REMEMBER: AUDUBON TRIP begins Monday morning. We will be leaving about 8:45a.m.
