

4th Grade News

Feb. 12-15

This week has been so crazy! We had Valentine's Day, 100th Day, and Ash Wednesday all this week. And even though we had fun stuff planned, the "Sickness" didn't care. The "Sickness" hit the classroom hard this week. We have had 5 out this week with something, and two last week. Please make sure to take care of yourself over this 5-day weekend!

Since we had so many kids gone, we haven't really accomplished any major units in core subjects. But we have accomplished some things. We have finished our first Book Club, Frindle, and it was hilarious. We conducted our Book Club in a manner that is respectful to everyone's opinion and yet, still share the love of the book. We couldn't wait to finish the book and to start another one! We have finished over 30 different activities that have to do with the number 100. We made 100 hats, glasses, and badges; we solved 100 math problems in each operation (+ - x ÷), tried to spell a word that had a value of over 100, rolled dice 100 times, a few dot-to-dots, counted in patterns to 100, and even did 100 different exercises.

This week we have mostly done Valentines! It was also the 100th Day! We had a party and we did 100th day stuff. My favorite was the 100 second power nap. I was snoring, it was so relaxing! Even if you get candy on that day, its not all about that. It's also for a saint named Valentine. He helped loved ones stay together and get married in secret. We always remember that time, it's so important. It's also about showing your loved ones how you feel, and it makes them feel special! It's about the ones you love! I love my family! - Isabel
