

4th Grade News

Feb. 20-24

Here in fourth grade, we have been working hard, but we took the day off on Monday to see if we could do 100 different activities. Wow! 100 Days of school have gone by. Can you believe it?? All of the activities that we completed covered a range of different subjects. We created 100 hearts out of colored paper and we put things that we are thankful for on them. We then put them into a collage on a poster and it is in the hallway being displayed. We did 100 addition, 100 subtraction, 100 multiplication, and 100 division problems. We read 100 words, guessed 100 corn kernels, counted to 100 by 1s, 2s, 5s, and 10s, and even did 100 exercises. We even brought 100 pieces of a snack to share with our classmates. We had fun the whole day, but we only made it through 44 activities. We were pretty tired by the end of the day.

This week in Reading, we read a play called King in the Kitchen. It was about a King who decided it was a good idea to try and make soup while blindfolded. He ended up making a very thick concoction and no one knew what it was. Whomever could guess what it was would win the Princess's hand in marriage. The Duke decided to taste it, and was instantly unable to open up his mouth. The Peasant was a clever fellow, and put it on the sole of his shoe, and it was instantly fixed. In the end, Princess and Peasant were able to get married, and the King was happy with his glue. We really enjoyed this play and every time we read it we had a different part. We put a lot of emotion into the play and it was really funny.

Next week, Wednesday is Ash Wednesday. We will be having mass at 8:30. Lent is a time to pray, fast, and repent. We will be reading a booklet every day of Lent to follow Jesus' journey to resurrection.

Today, Friday, we went to the Staples Public Library. We all learned about the website and how to search for books on it. Our tour guides were Kathy and Melissa. We went on a scavenger hunt to find a book with our group. I was in a group with Jade, and Lilly. We found the book "Bear Dogs". We had a lot of fun! We even got to check out books. I checked out two books. And we all owe our thanks to Melissa and Kathy!
