4th Grade News

With only four days of school this week, we sure had three exciting days!

Tuesday was a super exciting day, because we found out our class won an iPad for our video "the Story of Jonah"! It's pretty amazing!!

After we received our iPad, we ran back to the room to watch Mrs. P's sister-in-law graduate from her AIT training for the National Guard. She was in Fort Lee, Virginia. It was pretty cool to watch it live.

On Wednesday we celebrated Ash Wednesday by going to mass and talking about what the ashes mean and what Lent means. Lent is a time for prayer, fasting, and alms giving.

We also started our final NWEA test on Wednesday and finished on Thursday.

On Thursday, we celebrated our class mass and then we made our way to the library. February is I Love to Read Month, and when we got to the library, they gave us a tour and showed us how to use the computers to look things up. We had a scavenger hunt, and we even were able to check items out. We had a blast.

We had our first DEAR time of the month on Wednesday and we are working our way through this weeks reading challenge. WE LOVE TO READ!

Remember NO school on Friday or Monday. Valentine's Day party on Tuesday, and 100th Day of school on Wednesday.-Bring snack

Dress as your favorite book character on Wednesday!!
