Teachers are reviewing new (English??) curriculum to present for approval

Old Business: Alice Training - Completed the online refresher, December 14th is the on site training with the Staples Police Department

New Business:

Catholic United Financial Raffle - Motion was made and seconded to participate in the raffle and discontinue our in-house raffle for catholic schools week.

Carnival - After much discussion revolving around the total income versus expenses and parent time required, a motion was made and seconded to eliminate the school carnival. Motion passed. Discussion about replacing the carnival with a Friday evening dance and game night was thought to be a good replacement. More discussion is needed, fundraising to come up with a plan for approval.

Specials - Much discussion about the specials the students partake in at the public school. Music is going well here at SHAS. Students really enjoy it and teachers have good things to report also. Charles will visit the public school with our students at specials to see how/what they are learning.

Meeting was adjourned.

Next meeting will be November 7th, 2018

The meeting was closed with a prayer led by Charles.

Respectfully submitted,

Tom Brichacek
