Welcome back to a brand new year!

We are already hard at it. They are doing reports on a monkey of their choice. Watch for their final drafts to come home.

I am excited to have your wonderful children in my class. It will be a great year of expanding their knowledge through hard work, projects and fun.

I will try to keep you informed on up coming events. I will always include the spelling words for the next week. I will try to keep the newsletters also posted on the school website.

God bless,
Mrs. Trout
