Catholic Schools Week Fun

Last night's dance was enjoyed by several school children and their families, as was the entire week of fun themed dress up days and fun events. Monday was Super Hero Day with a Minute to Win-it competition for the kids. Tuesday was Camouflage Day where we especially remembered prayer in our daily lives, received an extra afternoon recess and drank hot cocoa. Wednesday was Pajama Day where we especially remembered to take the time to read for enjoyment. Today was Sunglasses Day with our all school Mass, and the staff shared in a potluck lunch together. Tomorrow we will wrap up the week with a fun Mismatch dress up day with popcorn and a movie at the end of the day.

This Weekend

Thank you parents for all your hard work selling raffle tickets for this year's carnival! As a parent of two SHAS students, I know the challenges you have with commitments to your school with fundraising and volunteer time. We all understand this necessity and we do our part, because we love this school for our children. This weekend will be a challenge for us all, making sure our carnival succeeds. Thank you all in advance for your sacrifice to the success of this event! We want to especially thank the 20% of the parents that always go above and beyond in doing 80% of the work throughout the year. We know, and you know who you are. We all are very grateful to you!

THE CARNIVAL IS ONLY 3 DAYS AWAY!!!

We need your help. We are relying on each family in K - 5 to donate the following items to help with the carnival.

10 grab bag prizes in brown paper lunch bags

3 Bingo prizes

2 or more cakes per family for the Cake Walk

2 or more baked items per family for the Bake Sale

All items can be dropped off either Friday anytime or Sunday before the Carnival.

Don't forget all set up is going to be done on Friday at 1:30!

Students can pick up the game tickets they earned on Sunday at the ticket counter. Please check the work schedule that came home today. This week is Catholic Schools Week. The whole school has been extremely busy getting everything done for this week.

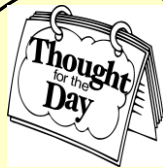

Monday the whole school participated in the game “Minute to Win It”. Each grade played a different game against each other. The students and staff had a blast in watching and participating in the games! It was so fun seeing all the Superhero costumes on Monday as well, since it was dress as a superhero. There were many different 1st grade Superheroes that day!

Tuesday students and staff wore camouflage for Camouflage Day. Along with Camouflage day we participated in Stop, Drop, and Pray which every student was able to say who or what they would like to pray for. In the afternoon, students got an extra recess followed by hot chocolate.

Wednesday was Pajama Day and No Homework Day! Kickoff to the Dance was also on Wednesday followed by the Community Pajama Dance Wednesday night. Everyone was very excited for the dance! For Thursday, it will be Sunglass Day along with Classroom Feud. Students and staff will be facing off to play a version of the favorite Family Feud.

Finally, on Friday it will be Mismatch Day which should be interesting to see what everyone comes up with! In the afternoon, students will be having an afternoon of fun with a movie and popcorn. Remember the Carnival is this Sunday! Happy Catholics School’s Week!
