

4th Grade News

We are learning how to divide 3 and 4 digit numbers in math. We are dividing and multiplying in order to create our feathers for our hats, and to figure out shopping list problems.

There was a juicy turkey for $5. -

Isaac

In English we did adjectives this week. On Monday, we did silly jokes, for example: Her mother roasted a yummy balloon in the oven. The adjectives describe the noun. The noun is a person, place, thing, or animal. - Danielle

Tomorrow is Thanksgiving and I hope you have a great Thanksgiving. Thanksgiving is all about loving and thanking God for all the things He has given you. Happy Thanksgiving! -

Landon

Thanksgiving is coming up! We hope you all have a great time with your family. We hope you eat lots of turkey, corn, stuffing, and mash potatoes. - Colby

In Religion, we are comparing Thanksgiving and the Eucharist. Did you know that the Eucharist means "thanksgiving?" Also, you should thank God at the table and church. -

Jack

In reading, we are reading about Pilgrims and Native Americans. Also, we have been doing worksheets. On these sheets we are learning about the Mayflower and did you know their voyage started in mid-July, but didn't leave England until September? - Corrine

It is a really short week. Tomorrow it's going to be a movie: "A Charlie Brown Thanksgiving" on TV. Everyone should get ready for Thanksgiving. I hope you're ready. Don't forget the turkey! Another word for "thanksgiving" is Eucharist. Happy Thanksgiving! - Andy

In Social, we are working on the Southeast. We are even working on States and Capitals cards. - Kierston

In Science, we didn't work on science, instead we made turkey projects to celebrate our thankfulness and parents. - Keegan

On Tuesday we had a mini dinner with the fifth grade pilgrims, and we made feather hats to represent the Native Americans. We had venison, squash, (Swedish) fish, (chocolate chip) acorns, and grape juice as our grapes. It was a lot of fun. Pictures are on the back. - Corrine

This very short week has been thanksgiving filled. We have been thinking very hard on what we are thankful for and what it truly means to have these things. I hope you and your families have a fantastic and blessed Thanksgiving. - Mrs. P

NEXT WEEK:

- OLPA Testing Dec. 1-5
- Mid Quarter Fri Dec. 5
- 2 hour early out Fri Dec. 5

FUTURE:

- Immaculate Conception Mass Mon Dec 8 8:30
- SHAS Christmas program Wed. Dec. 17 1:30 and 6:30
- Last day before Christmas Break Fri. Dec. 19
- School Resumes Mon. January 5.

Spelling

1. piece
2. peace
3. break
4. brake
5. threw
6. through
7. by
8. bye
9. beat
10. beet
11. thrown
12. throne
13. aloud
14. allowed
15. past
16. passed
17. weight
18. wait
19. there
20. their

Challenge

21. principal
22. principle
23. symbol
24. cymbal
25. stationary
26. stationery

We had a lot of fun giving thanks at our Thanksgiving Supper with the 5th grade Pilgrims

Happy Thanksgiving

