

4th Grade News

Nov. 7-11

This week we read a story about a small school that wrote their own classroom newsletter. Because of this story, the 4th grade students are now writing their own newsletters. Here is what they have to say this week.

In Math this week, we are starting to learn about multiplying 10, 100, and 1000. We will continue to learn about this next week. - Bryan

On Wednesday, we finished our reading book about Coyote School News. In the story the students wrote their own newspapers. Monchi is the main character in the story, and wants to get the perfect attendance award, but one day he had to stay home because it is an old story and his dad wanted him to stay home and help with roundup. He didn't get the Perfect Attendance Award, instead he got the silver dollar for writing so well for the school newspaper. - Axel

For Social, we learned about polls, and how old you have to be to vote, and be president, senator, and congress. We are learning about this because it is around Election

Day. On our election book we are on page 22-23. The whole school voted for fun. The results were Trump: 64, Hillary: 16, and Johnson: 1. - Jacob

In English this week, we have learned about plural nouns. A plural noun is more than one, for example "toys". If the noun ends in -ch, -sh, -s, -ss, or -x, you need to add "-es" to the end. If it doesn't you just put "-s". We also learned if a word ends in a "consonant-y" you change the "y" to an "i" and add "-es".

This week in religion we continue to learn about the 10 Commandments. Individually we have almost mastered all 10 of them. We are trying to learn the exact words. We even have hand signals to go with each one. We also read the story of Moses. We are doing really well! It is very interesting. We watched a video about it to. - Jade

NEXT WEEK:

• Nov. 17 Our Class Mass

FUTURE:

On Tuesday we voted and we had to vote for Donald Trump, Hillary Clinton, or Gary Johnson. We had to wait in a little line because we had to sign our name, get a piece of paper, give the little paper to somebody, get the ballot slip, and go to the voting booth. It took like one second to vote. Then we put our ballot in the box and received a sticker that said "I Voted". Finally we got to see who won. Donald Trump won with 64 votes, Hillary had 16, and Gary Johnson had 1. - Lilly

For the last two weeks we learned about a plant life cycle in Science. We made a 3D pumpkin life cycle and on the pumpkin there were six stages of the life cycle. We reviewed on Tuesday and then took the test on Wednesday. - Drake

On Thursday we practiced for Veterans Day, and then on Friday we had the real thing. The preschoolers were super cute. We did it to support our veterans. We had a lot of veterans there and some parents. - Sophie

I think they did very well on their first newsletter, don't you? Good luck to all hunters again this weekend, GOD BLESS, and STAY SAFE. - Mrs. P
