

4th Grade News

This week we did learn about singular possessive nouns and what they do. Everyone got it and we had our test on Friday. - Gabe

In Math we started doing Rocket Math. It goes A-W. I love Rocket Math because I'm a very smart writer. We also started multiplying 3 digits and it's complicated. When you get to the bottom you have to remember to add and not multiply. - Lauren Rose

In religion we are learning about the Ten Commandments! I think the easiest ones to follow are #5 which is "You shall not kill" and #10 "You shall not covet your neighbors goods". - Yours truly, Zachary.

In Science we learned about an aquifer. An aquifer is water that is underground. The top layer is called the water table. Mrs. P made very good pictures to help us understand. I LOVE learning about the water cycle because it is fun to learn about water. We learned that only 3% of the water on Earth is fresh water and $\frac{3}{4}$ of the Earth is land if you squish all the land together. - Emali :)

We are learning about the Revolutionary War in Social. The reason the Americans wanted to fight the British is because the king told them they couldn't go further west to find new land and because they had to pay really high taxes. So George Washington formed an army with the Americans and France. That's all I've learned so far in Social. Goodbye.

We read Marven of the Great North Woods for this week's story. It's where a ten year old kid goes to a logging camp because his parents sent him there so he wouldn't get a very bad disease and die.

There were big giant lumberjacks at the camp. Marven had two jobs, to be the book-keeper, so he can keep track of payroll, and he had to wake up the lumberjacks if they were late. He went skiing into the woods and thought his friend was a grizzly bear. That's the story folks. Bye! - Carter

NEXT WEEK:

- Nov. 19 Our class mass.

FUTURE:

- Nov. 25 2 Hour Early out
- Nov. 26-27 Thanksgiving Break

At our Veterans Day program we had a guest speaker, but I can't remember his name. After he was done talking the fourth grade class went up on stage. Lauren and I were partners, Carter and Emali were partners and Zachary and Gabe were partners. We recited our poems for two voices, which we wrote ourselves. We received many compliments. Lauren and I wrote about Old Glory, Carter and Emali wrote about The Fallen, and Zach and Gabe wrote about Dog Tags. When all was over we had cookies. Emali and I wanted two cookies, but Mrs. P said, "only one." But the important part is that we all had fun. - Ashlyn

The weather is getting cold out and we need to keep wearing warm coats, hats, and mittens. Even boots wouldn't hurt to have for outside recess. If the kids are not dressed properly they will not be allowed to go outside. We don't need any sickness spread through our very small class. - Mrs. P
