

4th Grade News

Oct 21-24

THIS WEEK:

This week we are reading a story called Coyote School News. The 4th graders have decided that they want to write what is going on in each subject just like the story characters. So enjoy their thoughts.

In math, we are learning hard multiplication and dividing. We are learning associative property, zero property, commutative property, and the property of one. - Isaac

In AR we need at least 5 points by next Friday. Isaac's birthday is next week. Happy Birthday Isaac!! - Danielle

We are having a blast in reading. We are learning about settings and drawing conclusions. - Landon

In Religion, we are learning about The Ten Commandments. The Ten Commandments are God's Rules for all to share and use. Moses was the Prince of Egypt. Our test was on Wednesday. Religion is an awesome subject. - Jack

Social with Mrs. Trout. We are learning about Christopher Columbus right now, and we made a timeline of his life. We are also learning about Spanish cultures. - Corrine

In Science we tested on Thursday and played baseball for review. - Keegan

This week 4th grade had mass. I'll tell you who had which part. Opening-Corrine, 1st reading-Jack and Andy, Response Psalm-Kierston, Isaac, and Landon, Alleluia-Corrine,

Petitions-Colby, Keegan, and Danielle, Gifts-Bread-Landon, Slips-Andy, Wine-Isaac. Also 4th grade lead Rosary. The 4th Glorious Mystery: Assumption - Andy

We learned a lot about nouns and when they can and cannot be used. We are reviewing nouns and proper nouns. We also had a test on Friday - Colby

In October we are decorating our classroom!! We are coloring and painting ghosts, spiders, cats, and Frankensteins. Happy Halloween - Kierston

I hope you have enjoyed their stories. Look forward to them throughout the coming newsletters. - Mrs. P

Halloween is Friday. We are going to have a little party at the end of the day. Costumes are optional, but must not be worn to mass. Students may change into them after. No scary, gory, or weapons allowed.
