4th Grade News

This week we are reading a story called Coyote School News. The 4th graders have decided that they want to write what is going on in school just like the story characters. So enjoy their thoughts.

Here at Sacred Heart, the Halloween dance was a success. Everyone had fun and I liked all of the cool costumes. - Carter

We made ghosts this week. We first had a water bottle with a balloon on top. Then we got a cheese cloth to dip in a water and glue mixture. We then folded it and put in on to the water bottles. We let it stay for two days and took it off. - Lauren

At the dance all of the 4th graders went on stage and danced. I can't believe we all fit up there!! - Gabe

We are making ghosts for Halloween. We used equal amounts of glue and water, put it into a bucket, then we got a water bottle with wire arms. We put glue sticks in the bottle for weight and then taped a balloon to the top. We dipped the cloth in the water - glue mixture and put the cloth on the bottle. We let it dry and took the cloth off. The cloth still has the shape and it is really cool! - Email

I went on the fire truck to Dairy Queen with Colby (5), Jacob (3), Abby (2), Maddison (1), Clara (K), Kaylee (PK), and my mom. - Zachary

We had a Halloween dance and all of us 4th graders took a picture on the stage. Alex McIlravy took a video of us dancing.

Even Mrs. Przybilla was up on the stage with us. Zachary was a Dalmatian, Emaili was a vampire, Carter was a gorilla, Lauren was Cinderella, Gabe was "Gaberham" Lincoln and I was a vampire! - Ashlyn

This week in 4th grade was a busy one. We started to learn the 10 Commandments and this week we learned hand signals to go with each Commandment. These hand signals will help us remember each one. Ask us about them the next time you see us, we will be glad to show you.

On Thursday, we had our second class mass and we rocked it. We love being able to help spread the Word by doing these mass parts.

We wish everyone a safe and Happy Halloween!! -Mrs. P and the 4th Graders p.s. Look for Parent Teacher Conference papers in my backpack!!

p.s.s Remember to turn your clocks back an hour this weekend!
