We had a great time at Old Wadena!!

Reminder: The students will always have spelling sentences on Wednesday night except if we don't have a spelling test!

We finished the fourth story in our reading book. It is "Satchel Paige", a biography of an African American baseball player.

In math we are mastering addition and subtraction.

In English we are working on simple subjects and simple predicates

In religion we are working on the parts of the Rosary.

In social we are we continue to learn about the first Americans, especially the types of homes they lived in.
