Religion: We talked about God creating the world and our role in his creation.

Math: They are working on place value.

Reading: We started with our novel, " Hatchet. It is written by a Minnesota author, Gary Paulsen.

English: They are learning about the 4 types of sentences.

Science: They are learning about the 3 types of rocks and about fossils. They made fossils last week using plaster of paris.

We are working with Prodigy in Math. I am sending home a letter showing how you can participate at home also.

REMINDER: Pictures are next week, September 22.

BOOK ORDER: Due Friday, Sept. 25—Our class code is LGKCB Go to Scholastic Book Club
