Reading to our Kindergarten buddies

I Love to Read Month is progressing well!

Our story “ Exploding Ants” is an example of expository non-fiction. The story tells about adaptations that many animals have made.

In math we are now working on reading, writing, and comparing fractions and decimals.

In English, we continue working on verbs.

In social we are learning about Duluth and Father Hennepin.

In religion we learned about bullying and the story of Jesus walking on the water.

The fifth graders are in charge of Pennies for Patients for the next 2 weeks.
